

Kids and God

Becoming Christian Leaders for our Children

Thursday, March 15 @ 6:30 p.m.

For Parents

Facilitated by

Rev. Stephen Bauman, Rev. Javier Viera, Kathryn Carroll

In what way do we and don't we, as adults and parents, identify ourselves as Christians at home and in the world? And why is this important in how we model for our children in a pluralistic society? Stephen, Javier, and Kathryn will share from their perspectives as parents of adult, teen, and young children. Come and join in a conversation on such questions as: How will this climate of polarization play out for our children? How does our Christian identity inform the decisions that we make for our families; including our school choices, social circles, relationships with money, aspirations for "success" and interpretation of media...